Foxton Bible Camp

excellent facilities for Youth Camps and Church Family Camps

Te Awa St
Foxton Beach

www.biblecamp.org.nz*

FOXTON BIBLE CAMP was established in 1961 primarily to facilitate an annual Family Camp. Since then our camping programme has enlarged to include a series of Youth Camps in the School holidays. We firmly believe in the value of a camping programme for spiritual encouragement and the strengthening of ties of fellowship among the people of God. This Christian emphasis remains our priority, but community groups are also able to hire the Camp (details in a separate brochure).

The grounds have been developed to enable camps to be contained on-site if they wish. The local area is also ideal for camps. The ocean beach is less than a half hour walk from Camp and the river estuary only minutes away. The Manawatu River Estuary draws visitors keen to see the 2000 birds and up to 58 species known to flock there over the northern winter and is a stop-over for many rare and migratory birds.

Foxton township is being developed as an historical town and offers horse-drawn tram and trolley bus rides, Dutch windmill and museum, flax museum, and an Audiovisual Museum. Foxton Beach School is the site of an astronomical observatory. Information on local items of interest is available from the Information Centre (Ph: 06- 363 5601).

BOOKING POLICY

1. All bookings are subject to the approval of the Booking Committee. We reserve the right to decline any booking.
2. Please read carefully the following BASIS OF HIRE section and consider an honest response to this. We ask that you do not seek a booking if you are unable to comply.

BASIS OF HIRE

for CHRISTIAN GROUPS

1. The following teachings must be held as true by the Camp leadership:
 - (i) The divine inspiration of the Old and New Testaments as the Word of God.
 - (ii) God the Father, the Son (Jesus Christ), and the Holy Spirit are equally and fully members of the one Godhead.
 - (iii) The virgin birth of the Lord Jesus Christ, his death as the only sacrifice for sin, his bodily resurrection and ascension, his present work as Head of the Church, his imminent return for his saints, his return to rule in righteousness & glory.
 - (iv) All men are born in sin, salvation is by faith in Christ alone, no-one can earn their salvation.
 - (v) The permanent indwelling of the Holy Spirit in all believers, the guarantee of eternal salvation.

2. That while at Camp the public encouragement and promotion of "sign gifts" (speaking in tongues, miracles, discerning of spirits) be refrained from. (We do not seek to forbid what some believe to be a normal part of their worship but do wish to dissociate ourselves from extreme teachings and practices).

3. The RULES OF CONDUCT and REQUIREMENTS FOR DIRECTORS be maintained.

REQUIREMENTS FOR DIRECTORS

1. There must be a minimum of two responsible adults sleeping in each dormitory wing. We prefer one adult for every ten campers for adequate supervision, and safety in case of emergency.
2. Your Camp Director must be familiar with safety requirements. The Camp Manager will supply written details on arrival.
3. Cabins are not to be used for youth camps unless permission is given by the Manager. An adult will be required in every cabin.
4. Camp buildings and grounds are to be left clean and tidy on vacating and all losses, breakages and damage are to be reported.

RULES OF CONDUCT

1. No interference with Camp property.
2. No cigarettes, alcohol or drugs allowed.
3. Boys and Girls accommodation kept separate.
3. No outside noise after 10.30pm. We are in a residential neighbourhood.
4. Vehicles are not to be driven around the property except to service the cabins. Motor-bikes/go-carts are not permitted.
